

Khutugtu and Lattimore: Legacy Beyond Borders
International Symposium
Organizers: American Center For Mongolian Studies (ACMS), Diluv Hutugtu Foundation (DHF)
May 12–13, 2026, Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia
Venue: National Museum of Mongolia

Tuesday, May 12, 14:00–18:00

Chair of the Session: Dr. Saruul-Erdene Myagmar (Ph.D.)

Time	Speaker name	Affiliation	Presentation Title
14:00-14:20	Conference opening: Telo Tulku Rinpoche (Founder, Diluv Hutugtu Foundation, Maggie Lindrooth (U.S. Director, ACMS)
14:20-14:50	Dr. Bold Ravdan	Institute for Strategic Studies	The Dilowa Khutugtu and his “Great Game”
14:50-15:20	Academician Batbayar Tsedendamba	Lattimore Research Society	Owen Lattimore and Socialist Mongolia: Changes in His Views on Nationalism, Development, and Religion
15:20-15:50	Prof. Christopher Atwood*	University of Pennsylvania	Owen Lattimore, the Diluwa Khutugtu, and the Human Relations Area Files Project
15:50-16:10	Tea Break
16:10-16:40	Prof. Batsaikhan Ookhnoi	Mongolian Academy of Sciences	Bogd Khaan and Dilav Khutagt: Religion, Politics, and Buddhist Authority in Mongolia
16:40-17:00	Prof. Caroline Humphrey*	University of Cambridge (Video Presentation)	Owen Lattimore Through the Eyes of His Student: Professor Caroline Humphrey on Mentorship, Scholarship, and Mongolian Studies (Video presentation)
17:00-18:00	Panel Discussion

Wednesday, May 13, 09:00-16:30

09:00-12:30 Chair of the Session: Academician Batbayar Tsedendamba

09:00-09:20	Dr. Saruul-Erdene Myagmar	The Library of Congress	Dilowa Khutugtu in the United States: A Multidisciplinary Intellectual and Early Contributor to Mongolian Studies
09:20-09:40	Prof. Toba Baikai & A. Shindo	J. F. Oberlin University	“Japan-Mongolia Buddhist Peace Association” and Diluwa Khutugtu
09:40-10:00	Dr. Dotno Dashdorj Pount	Harvard University, Harvard Divinity School, Women's Studies in Religion Program (WSRP)	The Owen Lattimore Collection at the Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology, Harvard University
10:00-10:20	Prof. S. Demberel, G. Erdenebayar	Department of Philosophy and Religious Studies, National University of Mongolia	Diluv Khutugtu in the Scholarship of Lokesh Chandra
10:20-10:40	Sue Byrne*	Independent Researcher	Dilowa khutuktu in Inner Mongolia: British Travel Accounts and Mongolian Aspirations in 1935 (Video presentation)
10.40-11:00	Tea Break
11:00-11:20	Dr. B. Erdenebileg	General Intelligence Agency, Special Archives	Archival Study on Diluv Khutugtu’s Intelligence Activities
11:20-11:40	Dr. Budsuren Dorjderem	Head of the Research Center at the Railway University of Mongolia	Documents Related to Diluv Khutugtu Jamsrangjav in the National Central Archives
11:40-12:30	Panel Discussion
12:30-14:00	Lunch break

14:00-16:30 Chair of the Session: Davaasuren Myagmar (ACMS In-Country Director)

14.00-14.20	Dr. Erdenebat Dandarvaanchig	Department of Contemporary History, Institute of History and Ethnology, Mongolian Academy of Sciences	Owen Lattimore and the U.S. Vice President’s Visit to Mongolia
14.20-14.40	Dr. Dolgorjav Luvsandorj	Mongolian State University of Arts and Culture	Stylistic and Linguistic Features of the Letters of Diluv Khutugtu
14.40-15.00	Batsaikhan Ochirbat	Postage Stamp and Securities Department, “Mongol Post” JSC	Life and Legacy of Jalkhanz Khutagt Damdinbazar and Dilav Khutagt Jamsranjav

15.00-15.20	Yunrendorj Jantsandorj	Zavkhan Province Museum	Diluv Khutughtu's Artifacts in the Zavkhan Provincial Museum Collection
15.20-15.40	Dr. Munkhtuul Chuluunbaatar	International Institute for the Study of Nomadic Civilizations	The Making of the "X" Lineage: History, Genealogy, and Lineage Festivals
15.40-16.00	Tea Break
16.00-16.30	Conclusion and Closing Remarks
	Presentations with * will be given in English. All other presentations will be given in Mongolian.		